Average Days on Market

San Francisco: Time on Market to Accepted Offer

Sales reported to NorCal MLS Alliance, per Infosparks

Days-on-market is an indicator of how quickly buyers are snapping up listings, and typically rises and falls according to seasonal trends. Houses (blue line) generally sell faster than condos (green line), but both a trending very low.

As reported to NorCal MLS Alliance. These analyses were performed in good faith with data derived from sources deemed reliable, but they may contain errors and are subject to revision. All numbers approximate.

COMPASS